

Class of 2001 Coming Home King Nominee: Jathan Littlefield

Jathan wasn't born a Pied Piper, but he arrived here as quickly as he could! He moved to Hamlin from Anson in 1992 and immediately bled green. Jathan played football from 7th grade through high school and was a member of the Pied Piper Band playing in the drum line. He married Tamara Smith, Class of 2002, and they have three sons, Rylan, Ryder, and Rustyn all currently attending Hamlin Collegiate ISD. Jathan has been an active member of the Hamlin Lions Club for the past eleven years, serving as president of the organization for two years, and has served on the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce Board. He has been farming in the Hamlin area for seventeen years. His parents are Rhonda and Davis Weaver of Hamlin and Tony and Janet Littlefield of Daingerfield, TX.
